Orientation and Induction Program

M.Com- 1st Semester (2024-2025)

The orientation and induction program for the new batch of M.Com 1st semester (2024-2025) students was conducted on 12th September, 2024 with the objective of familiarizing them with the curriculum, institutional policies, and available resources. The session aimed to equip students with the necessary information to ensure a smooth transition into the postgraduate program. The event was attended by the Principal, Prof. Sanjai Mishra, faculty and the new students.

The orientation commenced with a welcome speech by Dr. Durga Dutt Mishra, Head Department of commerce. The speaker warmly welcomed the students to the institution, emphasizing the significance of postgraduate education in commerce. The address focused on the key role the M.Com program plays in preparing students for professional careers in finance, accounting, business management, and research.

Following the welcome speech, an overview of the M.Com program was presented by Dr. Rajiv Srivasatva, Dr. Mohan Singh and Dr Sadhna Singh. The presentation outlined the course structure, which includes core subjects, electives, and research projects. It was highlighted that the program is designed to offer a blend of theoretical knowledge and practical skills, catering to both academic interests and industry demands. Students were also informed and guided about the college history and its achievements by the Principal.

Students were introduced with the various support services available in the college premises. The services include access to a state-of-the-art library, career counseling, mentorship programs, and financial aid for deserving students. The orientation highlighted the role of academic advisors who would assist students in course selection, career planning, and resolving academic concerns.

A brief session on institutional policies was held to inform students about the rules, regulations, and code of conduct. Emphasis was placed on attendance requirements, academic integrity, examination protocols, and the grading system. Students were urged to maintain professional behavior and adhere to deadlines.

To foster a sense of community and encourage networking, an interactive session was conducted. The activities were designed to enhance teamwork, communication, and collaboration, qualities that are essential for success in a postgraduate environment.

Towards the end of the program, a Q&A session was conducted, where students had the opportunity to ask questions and share their concerns. Faculty members were present to address these queries and offer further insights into the program. Many students expressed enthusiasm for the program and appreciated the clarity provided during the orientation.

The orientation concluded with closing remarks by Dr. Durga Dutt Mishra, who encouraged students to fully engage with the opportunities available to them. All the faculty members Dr. Preeti Pant, Dr. Upasana Srivastava, Dr. Ajeet Singh and Dr. Anurag Verma contributed to make the session effective and successful. The importance of continuous learning, networking, and participation in extracurricular activities was highlighted. The session ended with a positive note and vote of thanks, as students looked forward to starting their academic journey.
