

Department of Commerce

The Department of Commerce in this college is of very recent origin. It was established during the session 2009-10 on self-finance basis. Since then the department has developed and the Lucknow University has been kind enough to allow three sections in B.Com classes. Since its inception the department is progressing well under the fully qualified teachers and has regularly shown excellent results in B.Com classes. Our learned and qualified faculty provide regular academic guidance through class room teaching, various online modes, proper notes, model papers, question banks and recorded videos and audios of their lecture.

Besides the educational programmes the Department has been organising lectures from the senior professors and senior officials of the government departments relating to the field of commerce. The department has also been organising several cultural activities i.e., dance competition rangoli competition, debates, and essay competition among the students. Our students have attained various positions and prizes in the competition organised by the other institutions as well. The department has been regularly associated with various management institutes which organises career counselling and personality development discussions with our students in the college campus. Several students in different years have been placed in good positions in the reputed organisations.

The department has a separate smart classroom. Our department has its own enriched library. The department is regularly organising special lectures for the students to develop their general knowledge and commercial knowledge enhancement which can assist them in self-development and getting better employment opportunities.

The department is successfully running an add-on course on GST. This year has been proved to be a milestone as our UG course (B.Com) got permanent affiliation and we also got affiliation to run the PG course (M.Com Pure) under the aegis of Lucknow University.
